

Year 1 English Homework

- You do not print the homework, write directly in your red homework books.
- Please read the story and answer the questions.

Give this story a title: _____

There once was a very clever girl called Lucy .

She wore a blue school uniform. Lucy loved school because she had a very nice teacher.

Lucy's teacher was called Mrs Book .

Mrs Book read Lucy's class lots of books. She was very good at reading stories. She made Lucy feel as if she was in the book!

Lucy played with her school friends. She had two best friends. Their names were Megan  and Ben .

When it was home time Lucy went home with her dad in his blue car . At home Dad would make dinner. Lucy's favourite dinner was pasta .

- Now its's time to think about what happened in the story you read.

- Can you finish the sentences below?
- You might need to read the story again to remind you.
- Please write complete sentences in your red homework books.
- Remember finger spacing and full stops.

Lucy went

.

She wore a uniform.

Mrs Book read a

.

Lucy played with

.

picked her up at home time.

He picked her up in

.

They went home and had

.

- For a challenge; you can change and rewrite the end of the story.
- Lucy can go to the shops or to the park and have lots of fun.
- Imagine this story is about you, what would you like to do.