

Word of the Week:

exhausted
adj. worn out or very tired when you are so tired you can barely keep your eyes open mrswordsmith.com

word pairs
exhausted sleep
exhausted voice
exhausted troops

etymology
Exhausted comes from the Latin word exhaustus, which means "used up".

SYNONYMS
weary
fatigued
drained

Used in 6.6% of stories

tell a story
"I'll just nap for five minutes," yawned Grit, too exhausted to keep his eyes open...

Can you write two sentences where this word is being used in different ways

Sentence 1:

Sentence 2: