

Nursery flip

On the first week back your child will be learning how to sequence daily events in the correct order.

Have your child look at the following routine, and see if they can tell you how they get ready for school in order.

