

Word of the Week:

blurt

v. to cry out or say suddenly like shouting out when it's someone else's turn mrswordsmith.com

word pairs

- blurt suddenly
- blurt accidentally
- blurt awkwardly

to cry out or say suddenly like shouting out when it's someone else's turn

SYNONYMS

- exclaim
- let slip
- blab

Used in 3.5% of stories

blurt

“

“He'll blurt the whole thing out if we don't shut him up,” cried Drinian.

The Chronicles of Narnia: The Voyage of the Dawn Treader
by C. S. Lewis

”

tell a story

Nobody could believe what Plato blurted out on live TV...

Can you write two sentences where this word is being used in different ways

Sentence 1:

Sentence 2: