English homework:

Create a poster on the American civil war.

Use the internet to find information on why the civil war took place.

Remember these posters have to be neat, colourful and full of useful information and facts, as these will be displayed!