

Maths Homework

Your child has been doing lots of matching and sorting this week in their maths lessons. Get your child to do the following activities in their homework books.

Activity 1:

Can you get your child to design two matching pairs of socks?

Activity 2: Collect objects around the house. Can you get your child to sort them into two different groups? They could be groups according to colour, size, shape etc.

