

Reception Literacy Homework

In literacy this week we have been practising improving our writing by holding our pencils correctly and forming our letters correctly.

Please get your child to copy out the following sentences in their homework books and remind them to form their letters correctly.

Bill is sad.

Mummy came back.

It was dark.