

Literace

Whatever next

This term the children are learning about space, we have been reading the book Whatever Next. This book is about a bear that wants to visit the moon.

Have your child watch the following video and get them to fill in what the characters say in the story.

Please stick the pictures I have provided in their homework books.

