

Year 5 / 6 Autumn End of Term Homework!

English: Windrush Child

Remember...watch the FLIP VIDEOS!

Next terms English book will be 'Windrush Child' by Benjamin Zephaniah.

The Windrush generation are a group of people who arrived into the U.K around 1948, shortly after the Second World War to help rebuild the country and find a new life for themselves and their families. They arrived on a ship called 'HMT Empire Windrush' (for which they've been named after), and soon after coming, they were met with hostility, racism and aggression. The majority of these people originally came from the Caribbean and they struggled to build a new life for themselves and were given little to no help from the government. Even though they came to help and develop a country that had just been through a world war, a lot of them were eventually considered illegal immigrants, this caused various problems for them and their future generations. Jobs became hard to get, support was not given, and communities were suffering. There are still people within the U.K who are going through certain struggles due to the lasting effects of this scandal.
