

Y5-6 English Homework and Flip

30 / 5 / 2022 – 10 / 6 / 2022

Homework

Prepare for writing your autobiography. Do the task on this sheet

Over our next few English lessons we will be writing our own autobiographies. Use this sheet to find out some information about your life and make bullet-pointed notes!

Questions you might like to ask an adult in your life:

- Where was I born?
- How was my name chosen? Do I have any nicknames?
- Where was my childhood home? What was it like?
- What pets have we had?
- What is one of your favourite memories of me when I was younger?
- What jobs do my parents do?
- What have been some special dates/ events in our lives?
- Are there any interesting facts about our family?
- Are there any funny anecdotes you have about me?
- What schools have I been to?

English Flip Learning

Get a head start in your learning and watch the following videos:

What is an Autobiography?

How to write an Autobiography

scrawny

adj. thin and bony

like a wet dog who is all skin and bones

mrswordsmith.com

word pairs

scrawny dog scrawny chicken scrawny neck

adj.

thin and bony like a wet dog who is all skin and bones

SYNONYMS

skinny thin bony

scrawny

“

Then her eyes traveled up Count Olaf's lean, shabbily dressed body, and she saw that he was pointing up with one scrawny hand.

A Series of Unfortunate Events: The Bad Beginning
by Lemony Snicket

”

Used in 1.9%
of stories

tell a story

Grit was shocked to see how scrawny he looked when he stepped out of the shower...

Spelling

Spelling Words

'i before e except after c' rule

1. Chief

2. Believe

3. Brief

4. Receive

5. Achieve

6. Niece

7. Diesel

8. Hygiene

9. Piece

10. Thief

11. Deceive

12. Deceit

13. Receipt