

Everyday Materials

Next term...

Next term, KS1 will be looking at everyday materials they come across daily.

As homework, you are to draw everyday objects in your homes and label what material the material is made out from. This object has to be a simple object you use, it could be the bowl you use for breakfast or the iPad you use to watch.