Persuasive Writing Prompts: Finish the argument.

You have been focusing on persuasive language that you have used to sell products. For homework, your task is to think if children should be allowed to own pets? Write a persuasive statement either stating the reasons why children should be allowed to own pets or not. Remember to use the persuasive words you learnt during the week.

Should Children Be Allowed to Own Pets?

There are many arguments for and against children owning pets. Pets help to keep children company, help to keep children fit, and they also help children to learn new responsibilities. However, pets can be dangerous. They require a lot of maintenance, and they cost a lot of money to be taken care of properly.
