

This week, in maths, your child has been learning about representing number 4 and 5. Below are some pictures of representations of 4 and 5 as examples. Ask your child; Can you represent 4 using objects? Can you match the objects to the number? Can you represent 5 using objects? Can you tell which number is smaller and which is larger?

---

