

Collective Nouns

Collective nouns refer to a group - it could be of a particular animal, or set of objects.

Tip: When you see the word 'collective', think of a 'collection' of things.

For example, a bouquet of flowers, a bunch of grapes

Task 1

Choose the correct collective noun from the 'Word Box' to fill in the blanks. Some of these groups have more than one collective noun that can be applied to them, but just select one for each. Use each word only once.

Tip: For any you are unsure of, think about how the collective noun might relate to that particular group, or research the answer.
