

Leisure and Entertainment

Complete the given task

Gaming Memories

To research personal experiences of games in the past.

In your history unit of work, you will be learning (or have learnt) about how computer gaming developed as a form of leisure and entertainment in the 20th century.

Using the questions below, ask an adult at home or in school about their experiences of gaming when they were younger. Record their answers underneath. You may want to share what you have found out with your class.

Who are you interviewing? _____

How do you know them? _____

What types of games do you remember playing when you were a child?

Did you play board games? If so, which board games do you remember?

Did you play any computer or video games? If so, which games and where did you play them?

Which of these games was your favourite and why?
