

Holiday Homework/ 30th March – 14th April 2024

You do not need to print any of these tasks.
Just write down/do the tasks in the homework book.

- Rewrite these sentences, putting the spoken words first.

Ma said, “What’s that noise?”

Wilfred replied, “I’m going to find out.”

Aelgifu said, “Let me come too.”

- Rewrite these sentences, putting the spoken words last.

“I will take you fishing,” said Pa.

“Oh good! I can’t wait,” Wilfred replied excitedly.

“I would rather stay at home,” said Aelgifu.

Y3 Task

Adverbs

-
- Complete the sentences below with these adverbs.
-

joyfully dimly brightly silently
hurriedly greedily

-
-
- She ate _____.
- He shouted _____.
- They ran _____.
- The light shone _____.
- He crept _____.
-

Y4 Task

- Underline the adverbs in these two sets of stage directions:

Two boys burst happily out of the door.

Another boy looks sneakily around the door, then slides furtively out.

The third boy follows cautiously.

The two boys romp boisterously down the corridor, unaware that they are being followed.

A girl comes down the stairs in night clothes, rubbing her eyes.

She enters a room full of family and presents. She looks delighted and surprised.

Y4 Task

- Put adverbs in these sentences to make them more expressive:

Sarah pulls her dressing gown on _____.

She brushes her hair _____ . Then she stumbles _____ down the stairs and rubs her eyes _____ with her fists as she goes. Sarah walks _____ into the front room.

Her parents shout _____ and wish her a happy birthday. Sarah looks in delight at her presents.

Y3 Task Connectives

- Use one of these connectives to join the ideas into one sentence.

and	but	so
also	because

He fell over. He was not looking where he was going.

It is really hot. The sun is out.

I am hungry. I am cold.

- Some connectives link ideas but do not make one sentence. For example:

He broke the vase. It was not his fault.

He broke the vase. However, it was not his fault.

Spelling of the week

Word	1 st attempt	2 nd attempt	3 rd attempt awkwardly
frantically
curiously obediently
carefully rapidly unexpectedly

Word of the week

Deliberately -

Deliberate

adjective
dəˈlɪb(ə)rət/

done consciously and intentionally.

English Flip

Watch the video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oEhQoxdr87A>

